THE HILL TOP

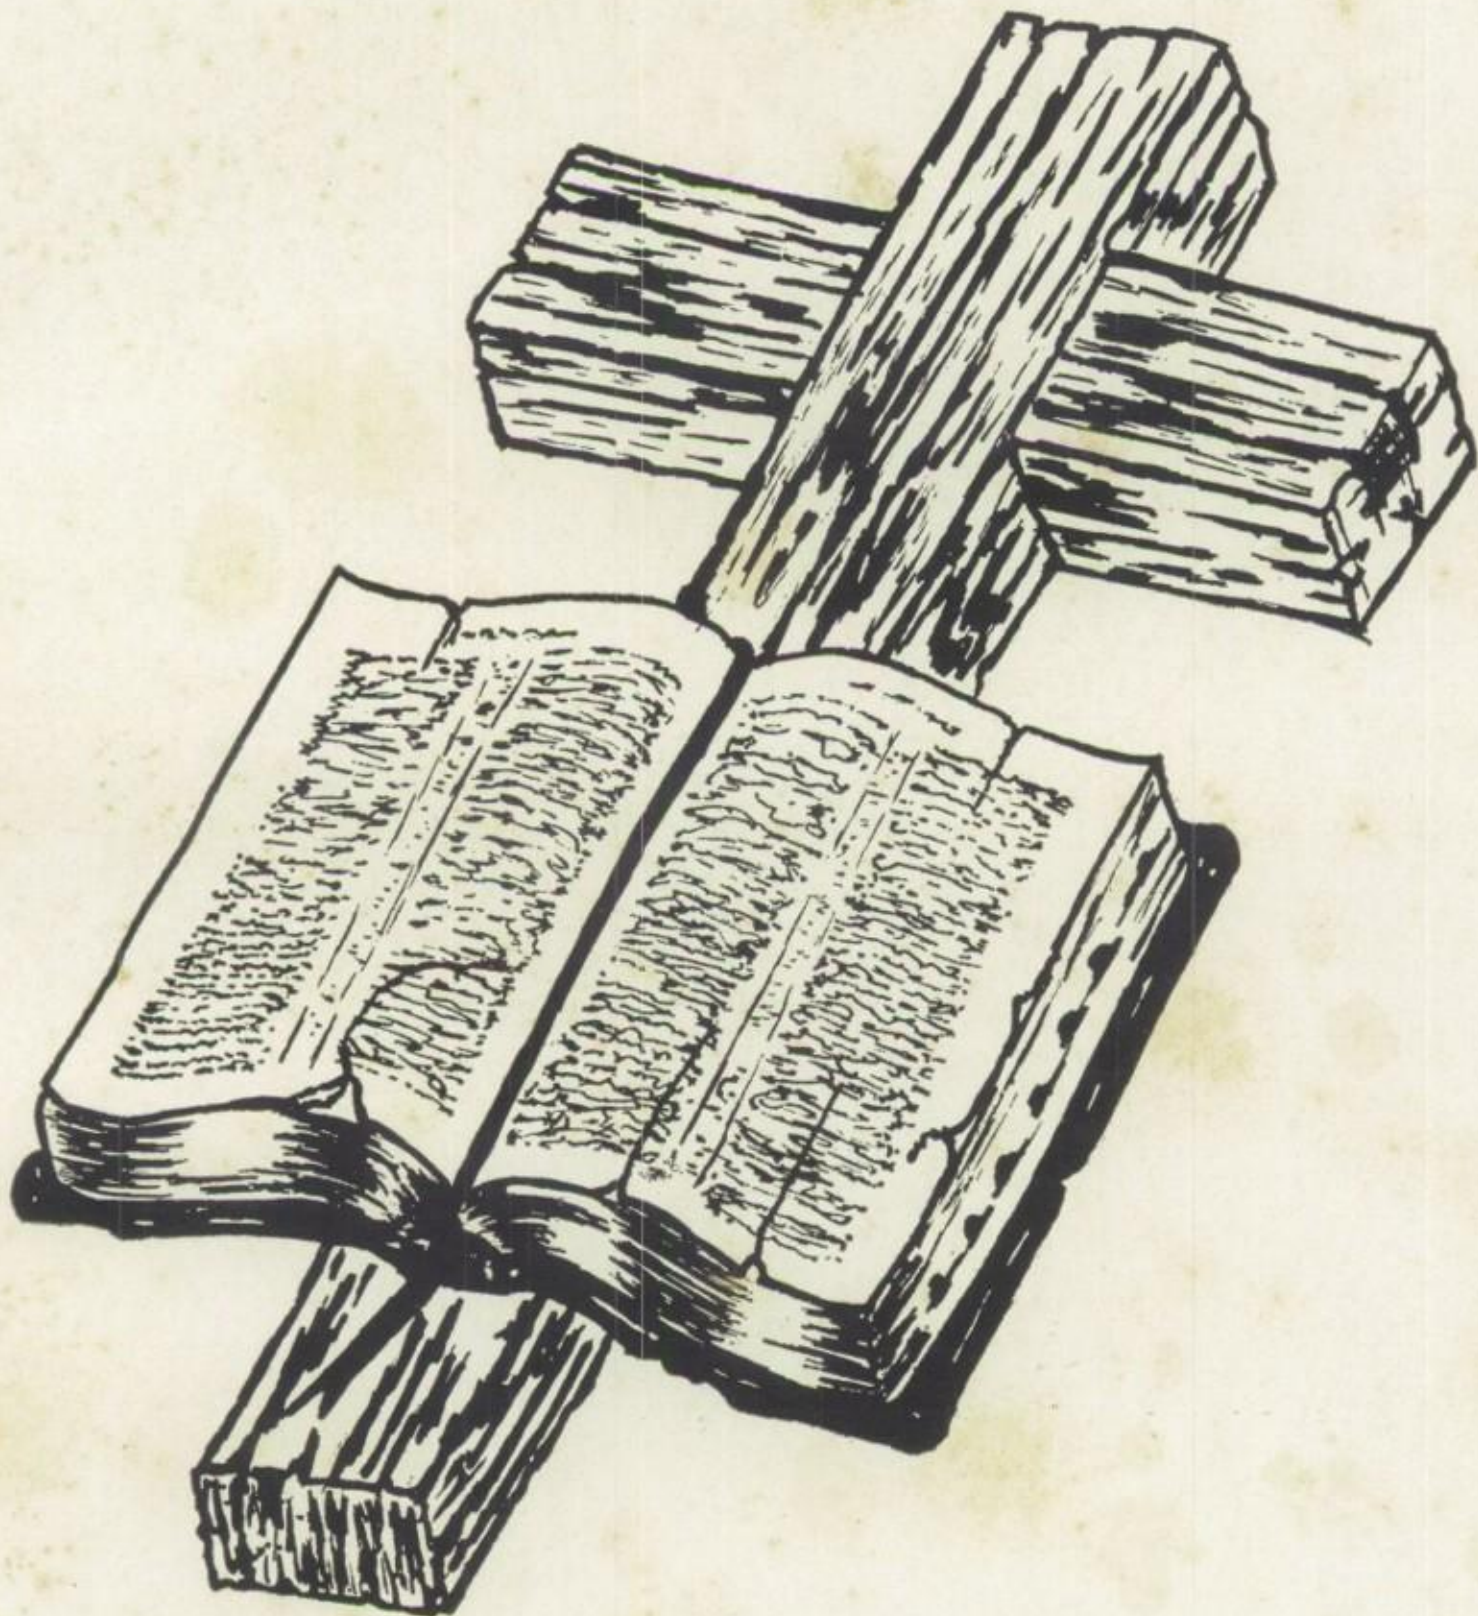

1957

On October 18, 1955, a representative committee of the different classes of each school and their sponsors met in classroom 1 and voted on a PERMANENT name, THE HILL TOP, for the school annual.

The Old Rugged Cross

On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross,
The emblem of suff'ring and shame;
And I love that old cross where the dearest and best
For a world of lost sinners was slain.

Oh, that old rugged cross, so despised by the world,
Has a wondrous attraction for me;
For the dear Lamb of God left His glory above
To bear it to dark Calvary.

In the old rugged cross, stained with blood so divine,
A wondrous beauty I see;
For 'twas on that old cross Jesus suffered and died
To pardon and sanctify me.

To the old rugged cross I will ever be true,
Its shame and reproach gladly bear;
Then He'll call me some day to my home far away,
Where His glory forever I'll share.

Chorus

So I'll cherish the old rugged cross,
Till my trophies at last I lay down;
I will cling to the old rugged cross,
And exchange it some day for a crown.

We will cling to the OLD RUGGED CROSS

Dedication

The aged-wise and staid and the young-hungry and adventurous are ever in desperate need of one another. Both need to give and receive. We who are yet young are especially sensitive to the needs and hopes and spirit of those who are still younger. Their present "storm and stress" was ours just a short while ago. Therefore: feeling ourselves akin to their situation, we commend to them our common heritage in the Christ of the Cross.

It is our prayer that the living Christ of the Cross will ever be the guiding principle of life for the youth of God's Bible School, to whom we hereby dedicate this volume.

In Memoriam

Miss Irene Melzer was born on the coast of the Baltic Sea in the northern part of Europe. When she was a babe in arms, her parents came to America and settled in New York. She was wonderfully converted very early in life, and later she was sanctified wholly.

Miss Melzer came to God's Bible School as a student in 1911. In 1916 she became one of the instructors in the Music Department. She was with the Bible School forty-four years. She received her Bachelor and Master Degrees in Music.

In 1955 she was forced to give up her teaching, due to ill health. She passed away May 21, 1956.

Miss Melzer not only taught music, but she was a blessing spiritually as well. God's Bible School appreciates her many years of service. May her memory be a continued blessing to those she helped to influence for God.

God's Bible School Facts

God's Bible School was founded by Rev. Martin Wells Knapp in the fall of 1900 for the specific purpose of "training Christian young men and women for the great white harvest fields" at home and abroad. The first school work began September 27, 1900, at the present location on Mt. Auburn in Cincinnati, Ohio, with seventy-two students enrolled. Two buildings were in use. The faculty was composed of Rev. Knapp and three other teachers. The School began with a one-year course, centering around the Bible.

From this modest beginning the School has grown under the blessing of God. There are at present twelve buildings in use, more than three hundred students enrolled, and eighteen teachers. The students are from twenty or more states and seven foreign countries or islands. Many church denominations, most of them holiness, are represented in the student body. Other fields of study have been added until there are seven school departments.

The School is international in scope, interdenominational in relationship, and Wesleyan in faith. Its motto is "Back to the Bible." Its emphasis is still on the training of young men and women for the great harvest fields.

Approximately 17,000 students have been enrolled in God's Bible School, and forty-three nations have been represented among the fields to which its students have gone in their efforts to bless and lift broken and needy humanity. Widely distributed as these fields are, it is literally true that the sun never sets on the students of God's Bible School.

The fundamental aim of the College is to offer an effective liberal arts education, fused with a vital interpretation of truth. It seeks to correlate good scholarship with Christian experience.

The School of Theology purposes to send out into a confused world young men and women with some clear, sure word from God. It endeavors to give a comprehensive survey of the literature of the Bible, with its related subjects, in an atmosphere which will strengthen the faith of the student.

The High School Department offers secondary training to boys and girls who are preparing for a life of positive Christian living.

The Christian Workers Department attempts to give the student such a knowledge of the Bible that he will be at home in the presence of any spiritual need.

There is also a Music Department, a Six Weeks Course for personal workers, and a Correspondence Course available to those who are unable to spend time in school. Also connected with the School is a printing plant which issues two weekly papers, "God's Revivalist" and "Sparkling Waters," and other Christian literature.

The main events of the year are two regular revivals, the great Thanksgiving Dinner, and the school year closes with the annual Camp Meeting.

A Tribute to Sister Peabody

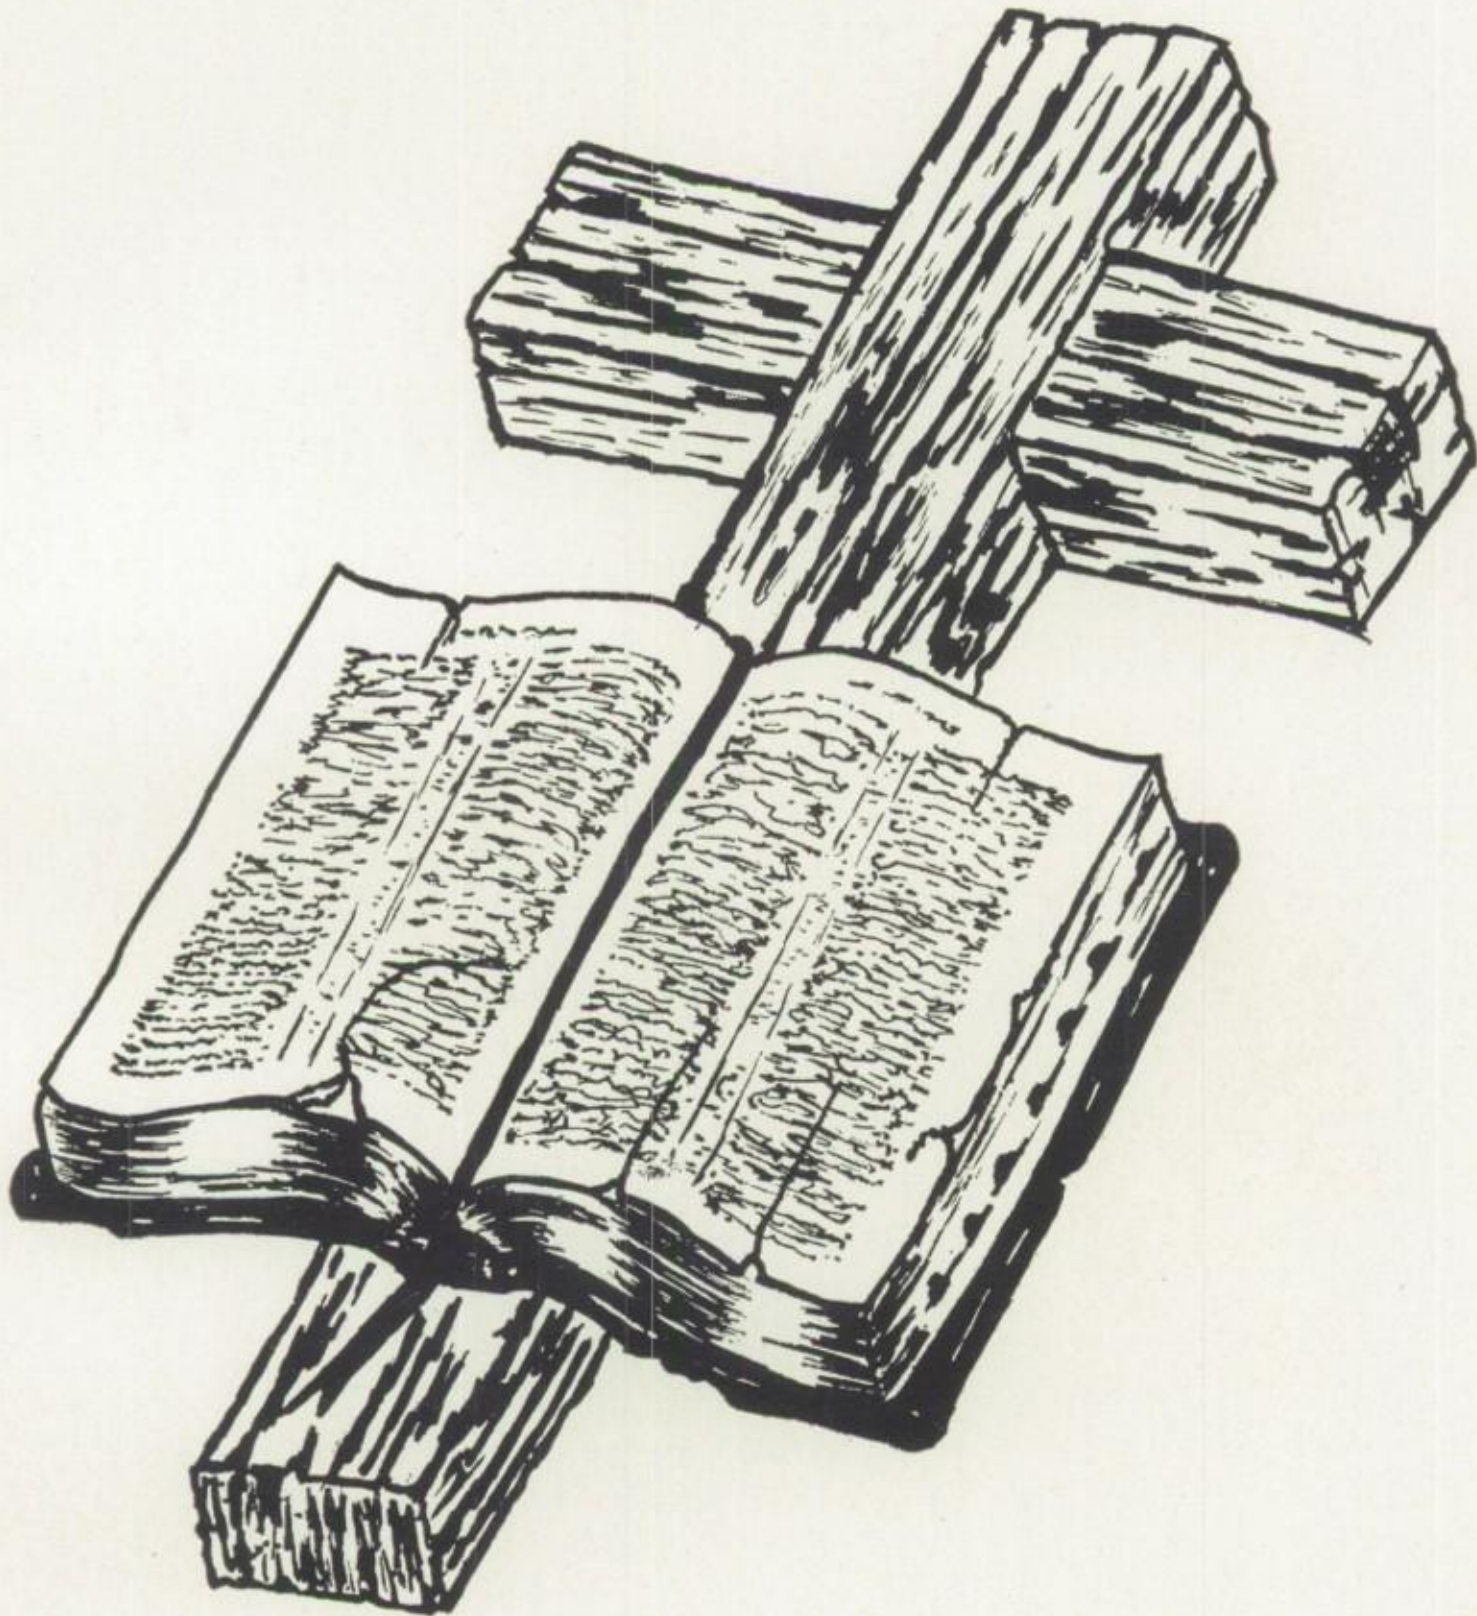

Sister Peabody came to God's Bible School from the state of Louisiana and taught here uninterruptedly from 1901 to 1952. She was laid aside by illness for two school years. She returned to the School in April, 1954, and again took up teaching.

Sister Peabody, we of God's Bible School—teachers, workers, and students—appreciate your fifty-four years of faithful teaching, your sacrifice, your exemplary life, and your love and devotion to God and His cause on the "Mount of Blessings."

Many have been the precious Bible truths more than 15,000 students have learned from God through you. May each one of us be as faithful to carry these truths to others as you have been in giving them to us during your years on the "Hilltop."

ADMINISTRATION

REV. LLOYD R. DAY
President

Three empty crosses on a lonely hilltop have greatly enhanced the Christian's attention for almost two millenniums. The middle cross has received by far the greatest devotion. The other two crosses have been sadly neglected. But I see a fourth cross—it is your very own! You must not fail to take it up and bear it.

"How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?"

With the song writer, I exhort the class of '57:

"Take up thy cross and follow me,
I hear the blessed Saviour call;
How can I make a lesser sacrifice,
When Jesus gave His all?"

Sincerely,
L. R. DAY

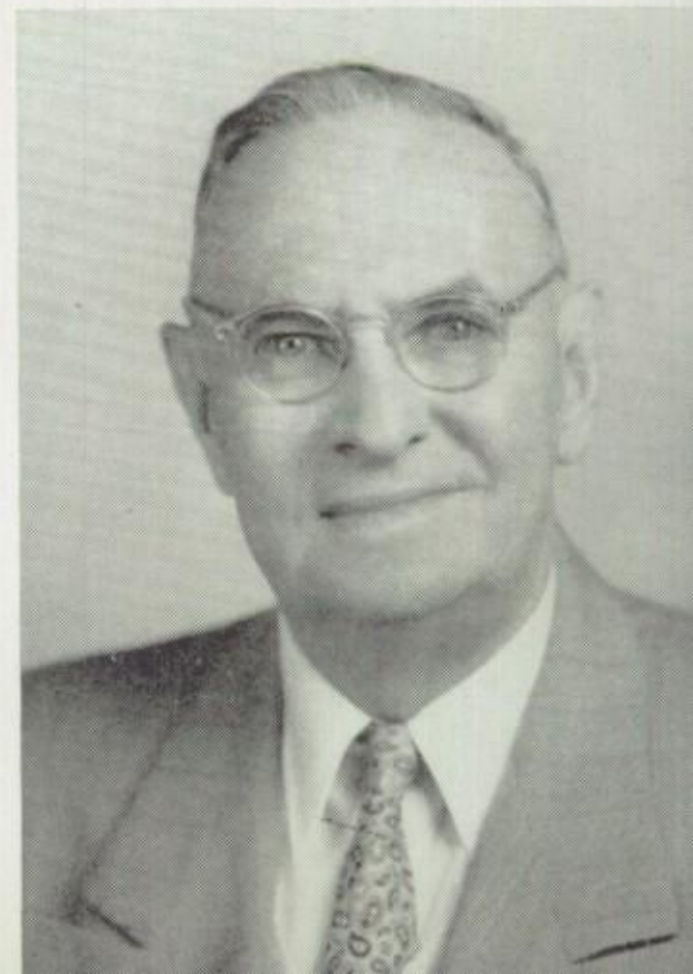

God Bible School has been blessed in having you splendid young men and women, and we know you have been blessed in being here.

I trust that in the years ahead each one of you "will give to the world the best that you have, and the best will come back to you" with honor to yourselves, your Alma Mater, and the communities in which you serve.

Congratulations to the Class of 1957!

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

You are a graduate of God's Bible School? Then of course you have already joined the Alumni Association, and I know you appreciate the contact this gives you with former students and faculty. Not only is the fellowship you enjoyed as a student a continuous fellowship through the Association, but you are now in a position to be a blessing to your Alma Mater in an ever-increasing way.

You are aware, naturally, of the requisite for membership in this Association. A graduate of any of the regular courses is eligible to join, and is enrolled as a full member; those who did not complete a regular course, or those completing a short-term course, are enrolled as associate members.

Your Alumni Association wants every former student, teacher, or worker, to join in this fellowship. Since the organization was formed less than seven years ago, in 1950, we have not as yet been able to locate all who have gone from this "Hilltop." Perhaps you can help in this matter, and remember that we are counting on you to boost for the Alumni Association of God's Bible School.

The Bible School Alumnus is printed quarterly, and is sent without charge to those entered on the membership list. This is a newsy four-page medium of keeping in touch with G. B. S. and with each other. It is a tie that binds us together around the world.

DOROTHY REMY, Secretary

GOD'S REVIVALIST

What Is "God's Revivalist"?

Briefly, it is a sixteen-page holiness weekly periodical. It was established as The Revivalist in 1888 by Martin Wells Knapp, the founder of God's Bible School, and in its beginning was a monthly publication, consisting of four large pages, printed in small type. The publication office was in Albion, Michigan. By 1893, the publication was located in Cincinnati, Ohio, from whence it has been sent on a world-wide ministry up to the present time. At the end of 1894 it was enlarged to an eight-page paper, the subscription price remaining at 30c per year to those "unwilling or unable to pay more." Balances were adjusted by free-will offerings. Quoting the editor, from the issue of January 5, 1899, we read: "The blessing of God has brought The Revivalist from the small four-page monthly to its present place. For its prosperity in the past, and auspicious outlook, we wish to record our gratitude to Him who has so faithfully verified the promise: 'In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.'—Prov. 3:6." At that time it was a sixteen-page weekly, as it is today. The present name, God's Revivalist, was adopted at the beginning of 1901.

What It Contains

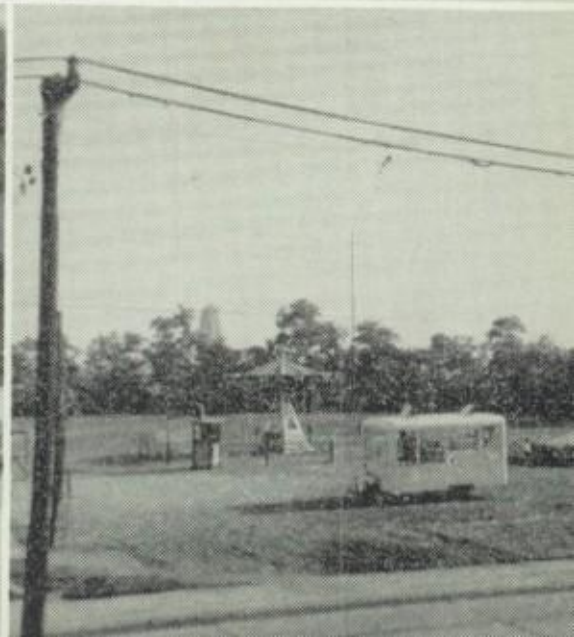

Each issue is devoted to the teaching of salvation in its fullness—regeneration and sanctification. This may be through sermons and articles by well-known writers, sermons preached at God's Bible School, shorter articles, testimonies, etc. It serves as an official organ of the School, setting forth such activities as the Thanksgiving program, the Camp Meeting, missionary programs, and other features.

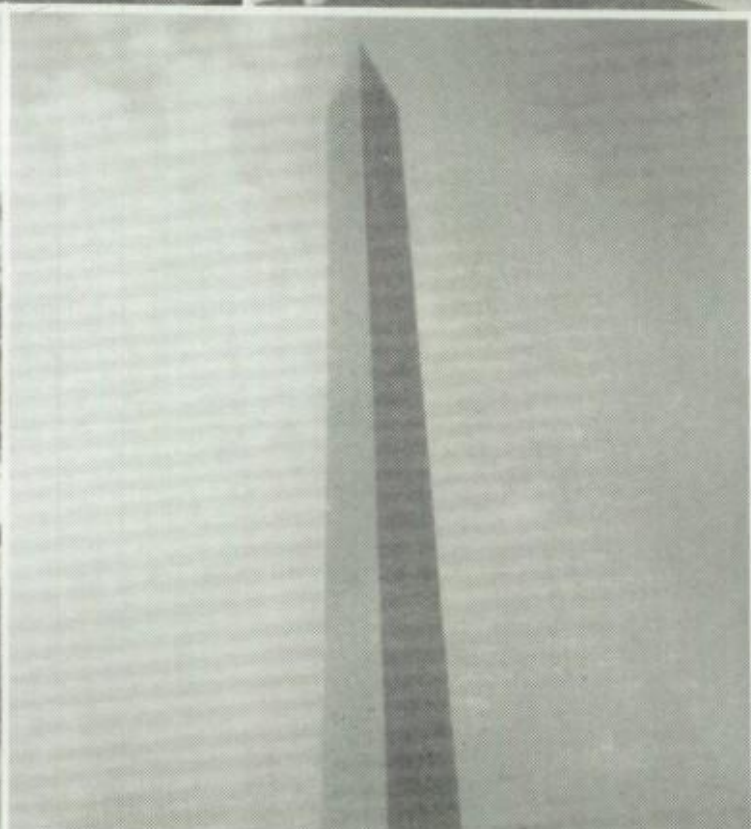

Every issue carries an exposition of the Sunday school lesson, a page devoted to the interests of youth, a page for meditation, and usually some letters from missionaries, many of whom are former students. There are appeals to the unsaved, illustrative materials for ministers, and much miscellaneous reading matter—all on a sound, Scriptural basis.

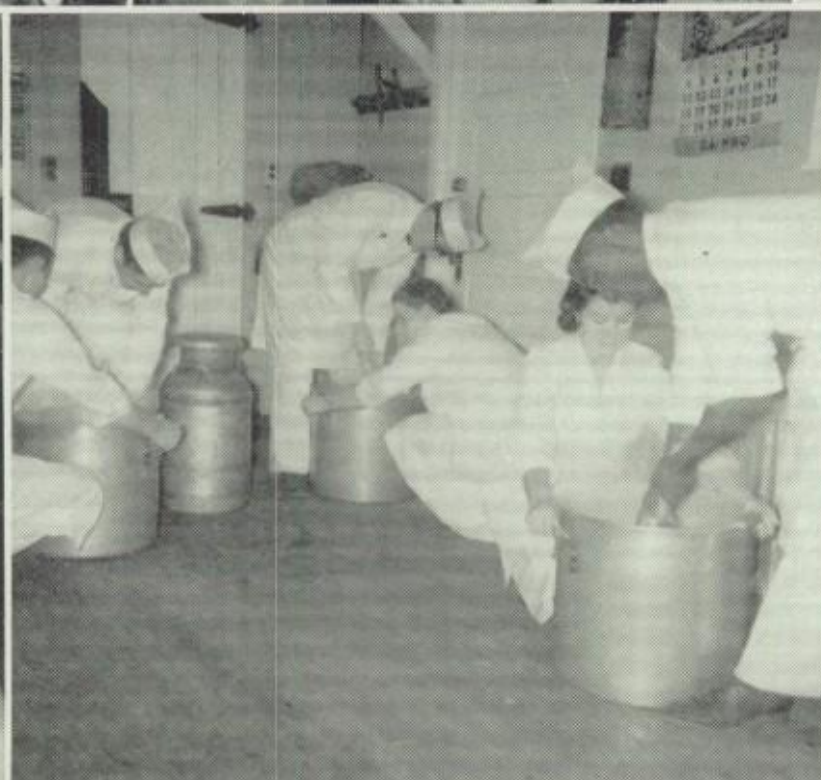

What It Means to You

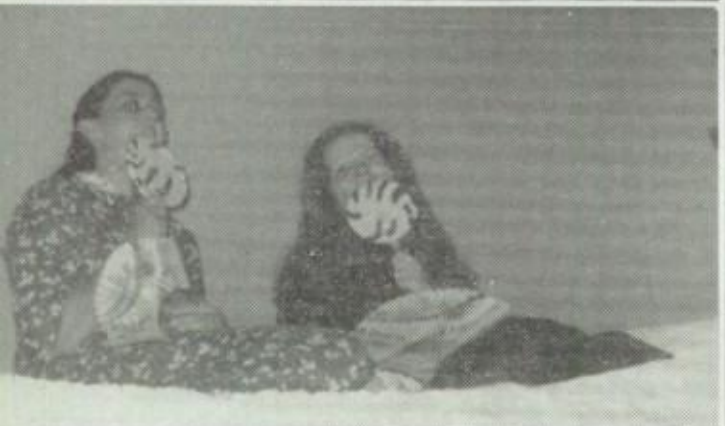

Graduates of 1957, as you depart from this Institution, where God's Revivalist is published, we trust that you have become so much in love with your Alma Mater that you will forever keep up the connections by means of this link, God's Revivalist. Not only will it be meat to your own soul, but also by sending it to others you may minister to many whom you could not otherwise reach. May each of you be a self-appointed committee of one to subscribe to, boost, and scatter God's Revivalist to the ends of the earth.

FLORENCE CARLSON, Editor

QUOTES

- "They are never alone who are accompanied by noble thoughts."
- "Go as far as you can see, and when you get there you'll see farther."
- "Never let difficulty stop you. It may only be sand on the track to prevent skidding."
- "Success is the ability to get along with some people and ahead of others."
- "The greater your troubles, the greater your opportunity to show yourself a man."
- "Take your stand on the Rock of Ages. Let death . . . let judgment come. The victory is Christ's and yours through Him."
- "Ability plus opportunity equals responsibility."
- "A man's worst difficulties begin when he is able to do just as he pleases."
- "Blessed is the man who does his work joyfully."
- "It is not the talented but the consecrated who serve best."
- "When life seems cruel to you, just remind yourself that acting small will never make you big; be big-hearted with life and it will never keep you down for long."
- "A promise of God is an extension of Himself down to your reach."
- "God is always doing more in the background than we can see on the surface."
- "Jesus walked like man, but worked like God."
- "The face is the signal system of the soul."
- "It isn't doing the will of God that constitutes a cross, but opposition to the way of God, a counter plan of the enemy."
- "Be thankful that your job is a little harder than you like, for razors are not sharpened on velvet."
- "Love may lose many battles but love will win the war."
- "Love is the dynamo that keeps us from freezing up."
- "For how alive, really, is anyone who exists without bestowing or receiving human love of some portion of each twenty-four hours?"
- "God answers prayer not on the basis of who we are but on who and what He is."
- "All that Calvary provided, judgment is going to require."
- "Time is never lost that is devoted to work."
- "When the outlook is not good, try the uplook."
- "No man can ever rise above that at which he aims."
- "Dig the well before you are thirsty."
- "Be not simply good but good for something."
- "He best worships God who best serves men."
- "Carve your name on hearts and not on marble."
- "They can conquer who believe they can."
- "The finest fruit earth holds up to its Maker is a finished man."
- "I refuse to let anyone belittle my soul by making me hate him."
- "The family that prays together stays together."

Advertisements

We of God's Bible School, the Hill Top Staff, the College Seniors, other students, teachers, and workers, desire to thank those who have placed an advertisement in this book. You have helped to defray the expenses of the Annual and made it possible to reduce the price of it to all of us. Again, we say thank you.
